

Workshop Session Agenda

December 7: 12:30 – 3:30 p.m. Eastern

Indigenous Capacity, Expertise and Gaps

- 12:30 – 12:40 p.m. Welcome and Roll-call
Marcel Shepert, Facilitator
- Opening: Importance of the Session
John G. Paul, Chair, National Indigenous Fisheries Institute
- 12:40 – 1:20 p.m. National Indigenous Economic Development Board
2019 Economic Development Report: Procurement Recommendations
Victoria LaBillois, Owner, Wejipeg Excavation/Co-owner, Wejuseg Construction
Danielle Levine, Chief Executive Officer, Kanuu: Indigenous Innovation
- 1:20 – 1:40 p.m. Inuit Business Capacity and Development
Vernon Amos, Northern Integrated Commercial Fisheries Initiative (NICFI)
Business Development Team: Northern Lead
Robert Tookoome, NICFI Business Development Advisor
- 1:40 – 1:55 p.m. AAROM Experience: Learning from A-Tlegay Fisheries Society
Kim Duncan, Administrator, A-Tlegay Fisheries Society
- 1:55 – 2:10 p.m. First Nations' Maritime Business: Sma'knis Maritime Safety & Security
Adam Kennedy, Founder
- 2:10 – 2:20 p.m. Health Break
- 2:20 – 2:50 p.m. Interactive Session: Path to Procurement
What are the capacity needs along the path to procurement?
What are the other needs (administrative, federal government, etc.)?
- 2:50 – 3:20 p.m. Outcomes of the Previous Session: Current and Future Opportunities
Gauging Interest and Q&A
Shannon Sheil
- 3:20 – 3:25 p.m. What's Next: Session devoted to develop the Path to Procurement based on today's session
Scheduled for: December 14, 12:30 – 3:30 p.m. Eastern
- 3:25 – 3:30 p.m. Closing
Marcel Shepert

