

Workshop Session Agenda

December 2: 12:30 – 3:30 p.m. Eastern Time

Current and Future Opportunities

- 12:30 – 12:55 p.m. Welcome and Roll-call
Marcel Shepert, Facilitator
- Opening of the Project: Importance to Indigenous Communities
John G. Paul, Chair, National Indigenous Fisheries Institute
- Opening of the Project: Importance to Reconciliation
Mark Waddell, Director General, Strategic Policy
- Opening of the Project: Importance to Future Procurement
Farhat Khan, Chief Procurement Officer
- 12:55 – 2:10 p.m. Institute Findings: Current State (FY2019-20) of DFO-CCG Procurement with Indigenous Businesses, Communities, Groups and Individuals
Shannon Sheil, Project Lead, Institute
- Interactive: Participants are expected to engage/provide input/agreement on findings and proposed opportunities
- 2:10 – 2:40 p.m. Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business Work to Increase Federal Procurement to 5% from Indigenous Business and the Components of a Holistic Indigenous Procurement Policy
Patrick Watson, Director, Public Policy, CCAB
- 2:40 – 3:00 p.m. Joint Ventures, Registries and Other Ideas to increase procurement with Indigenous businesses and groups: Interactive
Shannon Sheil
- 3:00 – 3:15 p.m. Mark Duiven, Executive Director, Institute
What's Next: Upcoming Sessions and Desired Outcomes
- 3:15 – 3:20 p.m. Closing
Marcel Shepert

